Setting up a business in Dubai involves very expert knowledge. Starting a business is the most exciting moment, however, it could be one of the most stressful. So starting a business requires the best advice in order to avoid any complication. We offer our professional services and expertise in the formation of companies in Dubai and all free zones of UAE

MAINLAND COMPANY

Any business in Dubai must have a Business (Trade) License issued by the Dubai Economic Department (DED) to operate. The Department of Economic Development (DED), Dubai is the government agency responsible for issuing these licenses for Dubai. The department operates from several locations delivering the licensing services. Dubai mainland companies are the best form of company to do local trade and to reach the local market, main land companies got no restriction to perform business activities locally and internationally. The requirements for any type of Trade License and the permissions required from different authorities and government ministries depends on the category of the business. The following categories of licence issued by the Economic Department for Mainland business in UAE are:

- Commercial license
- Professional License
- Industrial license
- Branches & Representative Offices

FREE ZONE COMPANY

The concept of a "Free Zone" or "Special Economic Region" has been developed internationally as a model to help develop and promote business in many countries. There are no taxes to speak of, on or offshore, but 100% foreign ownership and customs privileges make free zones the most favorable locations in Middle East for international operations.

We offer our professional services and expertise in the formation of companies in Dubai and all free zones of UAE include:

- Dubai Multi Commodities Centre (DMCC)
- Jebel Ali Free Zone Authority (JAFZA)
